

Booth, Arthur W. II

Arthur W. Booth, II, 65, of Aurora, CO, passed away August 1, 2008. His career as a Systems Analyst spanned over thirty years, culminating with his retirement from Wells Fargo Bank in February.

Art believed "Harmony is a wonderful thing in life and in song." He loved to sing and did so most of his life, lending his beautiful baritone voice to choirs, barbershop choruses and quartets.

He is survived by his mother, a brother, and sister in upstate New York, a second brother, two daughters, and a granddaughter who live here in Colorado.

A wonderful man, he is loved dearly and will be remembered and missed by many.

A memorial service, followed by a celebration of life, will be held Saturday, August 23, 2008 at 11:30 a.m., at St. Michaels Archangel Catholic Church, 19099 E. Floyd Ave., Aurora.
