

JULIE ANNE STARKE (HOPKINS)

JULIE ANNE STARKE
Transferred from Lansing Central School, Ludlowville, N. Y. 1960; Honor Society 4; Senior Class 4.

Julie Anne Hopkins of Jacksonville, NC

Born 12-31-41, Passed 09-30-17 in her home with family at bedside.

Julie was the oldest of 5 children. She is preceded in heaven by her brothers Bill and Tim, sister Florence, father and mother; Constance and Gordon Starke, first husband Frank H. Payne, daughter Deborah Lynn Trainer, granddaughter Julie Payne Smith, Chad Brooks grandson.

Julie is survived by her brother David Starke of NY, her children Brenda A Smith of Idaho, April L Kasch and Frank A Payne of Jacksonville, Scott A Hopkins of Beulaville, Jane Nickell, Cathy Brooks, and Jef Hopkins of Oklahoma. 13 Grandchildren, 10 Great grand kids, and 8 Great great grandkids in which she lives on in. Her greatest Loves during her earthly life were family, bowling, bingo.

Please join us in a celebration of her life on Oct. 7, 2017 at Jacksonville First Baptist on Gumbranch starting at 9 a.m. For viewing and services at 10 a.m. We will then gather after at 102 Aspen Lane off, of Blue Creek Rd., to continue rejoicing in the life of Julie A. Hopkins.

In lieu of flowers a covered dish or donation to Lower Cape Fear Hospice.

We will then lay her to rest with her life partner, best friend, and love Truman L Hopkins at the State Veterans Cemetery in Jacksonville, NC 28540

Online condolences may be left at JDNews.com.